PRETTY AND CAPTIVATING.

Miss Lillian Walters, Who Has Made Great Success in Light Opera. Evangeline made the longest sesson of any of the extravagenza companies last season, closing at Des Molbes, Ia., on July 4. The tour extended from Bangor, Me.,

MISS LILLIAN WALTERS to Portland, Ore. The next senson opens the 18th of August at the Hollis Street theatre, Boston, and will extend from Portland, Me., to Kansas City, Mo., and return, Manager Charles E. Rich says that "beautiful and successful Evangeline" shall be surrounded with all the loveliness possible in pretty girls, dazzling costumes and new scenery.

The part of Evangeline will be taken by Miss Lillian Walters, well known in the McCaul companies. While understudy in McCaul's company in 1887 Miss Walters assumed the role of the king in "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief" at Chicago and scored such a success that the regular incumbent was dethroned in the sppreciation of the public. This was followed by a success as Rosetta in "The Black Jussar." In 1889 she played Colypso in "Penelope," with the English Burlesque troup, the accompanying cut being from a photograph in that role. In this com-pany she divided with the star, Lydia Thompson, the honors of the piece. Last season Miss Walters resumed her studies under Maretzek for the more ambitious musical parts.

The artist is a pleasing brunette, with an elegant figure and a rich soprano voice. Mr. E. E. Rice, who retains an interest in "Evangeline," selected the new heroine from among many candidates, and predicts for her a great success.

HINTS ON DRESS COLORS.

Pink is becoming for fair, young people. Amber of all shades is exceedingly beoming to dark people.

or gray can be worn with impunity by the youthful and fair.

Golden haired blondes, red haired maids and matrons and dark people with clear, rosy complexions can wear black and look well. People with blue eyes should not wear bright blue. It makes their eyes look faded and detracts from the bloom of the many colors. Only those who have an exquisite complexion should dare to wear pale green,

If the complexions are clear, rosy, fair and 1700 dark have equal privileges. Magenta should be suppressed. Only a dazzling beauteous being could survive the nutifying effect of this depraved color, and then it must be combined with white. Dark sage green is an almost universally becoming color. It annuls any tinge of green there may be in the complexion; for 2500 this reason branette people generally look well in green. Chronic Inflamation of the Bladder,
